Country Racing South Australia Fashion's on the Field

Terms and Conditions

1. Award winners will be chosen based on seasonal criteria OR any theme criteria set out by the club and decided by the judging panel on the day.
2. The Judges decision is final and is decided by the number of votes set out in the criteria list. No further correspondence will be entered into.
3. Contestants must register at the event on the day and be present at the specified time for judging. Failing to attend on time automatically disqualifies the contestant from the event.
4. Registration automatically acknowledges that any photos taken on the day may be shared publicly on our platforms.
5. Contestants conduct during the competition is expected to be one of fun and must not bring disrepute to the event, organiser, the sponsors or the judges. Antisocial or disruptive behaviour will not be tolerated.
6. Clothing with inappropriate slogans, graphics or design will not be permitted
7. Contestants and/or their outfit must not promote commercially a brand store or designer or receive any commercial benefit from appearing in the competition.
8. Contestants must not in any way disparage or make derogatory comments in any format (electronically, verbally, or otherwise) about the promoter, any fashion competition associated with the Fashion's on the Field or other contestants at the time.
9. Contestants must not receive any payment from a third party for entering or participating.
- 10. If the contestant is in breach of any of these terms and conditions the club holds the right to disqualify the contestant on the day and also refuse entry into future events.
